CHRIST THE SERVANT
LUTHERAN CHURCH

October 2011
Volume 38, No. 2

Dear Friends:

“Life,” “justice,” “love,” and “death” are words that roll easily off our tongues. Heard on the evening news, they weigh about as much as “Tide,” “McDonalds” and “Ford.” The local headline announces a traffic tie-up, a murder, 85 degrees tomorrow, the Redskins win. Concern for poor people in St. Louis or malnourished babies in Somalia is quickly replaced by snacks and shampoo; meaning sucked out, neutered

But when someone close to you dies, the word “death” fills you up, sloshes around inside of you, overflows, and splashes all over your life with deep personal meaning; their death an irreplaceable loss, and a fleeting shadow of your own mortality.

The Bible is words. Sermons are words. The liturgy is words. What counts is not just how intently philosophers study the meaning of the words “love” and “justice,” how often we repeat them, or whether they are presented in the liturgically correct manner, but how we live them out in daily life.

Love is hard. It may begin with a gush of feeling, but at some point we learn that really loving is hard. To love well, we have to know something about the object of our love. Loving takes a certain internal discipline, especially when it comes to the stranger, the outcast, the fallen. Jesus says “Love your neighbor as yourself,” but not all neighbors can be loved in the same way and it takes a certain discipline to discern an appropriate approach.

The meaning of Biblical texts and liturgical tropes cannot fully be grasped in theological tomes. The meaning is not a thought, an idea, but a motivation, and a strategy leading to action. It’s not “yes, I should love my neighbor as myself,” but working at Gaithersburg HELP, building a HABITAT home, giving more to Lutheran World Relief than you would have preferred before you thought seriously about human needs abroad.

I was taught that the word “liturgy” comes from the words “people” and “work.” The liturgy is the work of the people in response to the words of the priest, and thus, by extension, toward God. The Catholic Encyclopedia (online) says that the original meaning of the word “liturgy” was “a public duty, a service to the state undertaken by a citizen.”

Worship is a public act, as distinguished from private devotions, and public acts have public consequences. We say the words “love” and “justice,” but the words are only precursors to meaningful acts of love and justice. And, when the acts do not follow, the words are empty of meaning, whether uttered in the kitchen or before the altar.

Footnotes is issued eleven times a year by Christ the Servant Lutheran Church, an ELCA congregation in the Metropolitan Washington, D.C. Synod. Articles of interest to the congregation are solicited from members of the CTS community and are due to the editor by the third Sunday of each month. Articles for the July/Aug issue are due in June.

Our fall social justice series in the adult forum will be a lot of words. The matters at hand are complex, and opinions about them are divided. It is my prayer that the work of the people in wrestling with the deepest of human social realities will lead to deeds of love and justice and that someday people will refer to CTS as "that justice church in Montgomery Village."

Memorial Service for George Mohn

George Mohn, a long-time member of Christ the Servant, passed away on August 22, 2011. There will be a Memorial Service for George at CTS on October 1, 2011, at 2:00 p.m. At the conclusion of the service, there will be a procession to the CTS Memorial Garden where the Commitment of the ashes of George and his wife, Doris, will take place. Doris Mohn passed away on December 28, 2005.

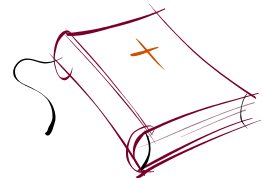

Stewardship Campaign Launches This Month

Our 2012 Stewardship Campaign launches at the Congregational Meeting on October 2nd. Please plan to join us that evening at 6:00 PM, immediately following the Congregational Dinner. Commitment Sunday will be October 30th. That is the day we ask you to offer your pledges as part of our worship.

This year's campaign won't focus on how much money the congregation needs. In fact, we won't talk about the budget at all. The focus of the campaign is on helping each of us grow in our relationship with Jesus through the use of the time, talents and finances God has entrusted to us. Our focus in October is on the finances God has entrusted to us; in the spring, we'll focus on time and talents.

Giving is one of the seven faith practices lifted up by the ELCA. When these practices become part of our daily life, we are better equipped to live the life to which Christ has called us. With that in mind, the goal of our campaign is not to raise enough money to meet our budget. Rather, it is to help all of us grow as disciples for Jesus Christ.

As you prepare your hearts for discerning what God is asking of you, I invite you to meditate on these verses from Luke 12:32-34:

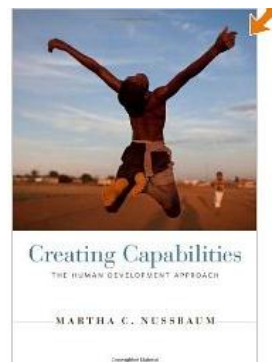

Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Women of Worth (WOW)

Thanks to everyone who supported the Women of Worth Fair Trade sale we were able to send $914 back to Uganda with Sarah Adams! It was so nice to have Sarah here and hear first hand about how the project continues to grow and change. The emphasis of WOW has always been to help women take the skills they have gained, and the money they have earned, from WOW projects to develop their own business or find employment.

Sarah said the Growing Tree preschool program is making its first attempt to be self-supporting. One woman has been able to set up a business repairing clothing and dressmaking with a sewing machine supplied by WOW. Three other women are making the patchwork bags in their homes and have a steady flow of customers. Cooking and computer classes are still being taught and the women get together every afternoon to make beads. One woman is starting up a catering business and preparing her home to train others. These are just a few examples of how the WOW program has helped women create a better life for themselves, their families and their community.

In addition to these projects, WOW is now supporting three orphanages in the villages outside of Kampala. Sarah was recently able to get solar panels and have lights installed at two of the orphanages with WOW funds. WOW funds provided 10 mattresses, blankets and clothing as well. They are currently trying to help one orphanage get an enclosed kitchen. Right now all of the cooking and clean up is done outside under a tree. In the future, Sarah would like to start additional WOW groups at each of the orphanages, but there is a lot of travel involved so that will be a big challenge.

The next WOW Fair Trade sale will be held on Saturday, October 29th at the Montgomery Village Farmers' Market. We will also plan to have a fair trade sale in November/December for holiday shopping. If there are any specific items you would like me to order from WOW, I can do that, just let me know soon.

Thanks again for your continued support of the WOW program!

Help the Homeless Mini-Walk – October 9, between services

Please join our annual CTS Walk to benefit Gaithersburg HELP, our local emergency assistance organization. The most important donation you can make is your presence, because the number of walkers is key to the overall success of the Walks. We hope to have a speaker from the Lamb Center.

Signup sheets are on the bulletin board in the hall, and they can be put in the box on the ushers' table. Registration for adults is $30, and youth (25 and under) is $20. New this year is the ability to "register to walk" on-line at: www.helpthehomelessdc.org/miniwalks. The name of our walk is "Christ the Servant Lutheran Church."

As we did last year, instead of asking each family to pay the registration fee for your own family members, we are asking each family to contribute whatever you feel you can contribute. If you can make a donation to cover other walkers' entry fees, that would be great, and if you are willing to walk but don't feel that you want to pay an entry fee, that is fine too. Please contribute what you can, and most importantly, COME! The money contributed, plus the matching grant for numbers of walkers, goes directly to Gaithersburg HELP.

Hope Walker

We are off to a great start for the 2011-2012 year for Parish Life!

We had a terrific turnout at the Benedictine Work Day on Saturday the 10th. Not only did we get a lot of Joanne Eastlack (Property) "To Do" list completed but we had a great lunch with some very tasty salads and desserts provided by members. Thanks so much to all of you who contributed food, energy, and skill to the day!

Our first Congregational Meeting is coming up on Sunday, October 2nd and, as is our CTS tradition, we will have a pot luck dinner at 5 pm prior to the start of the meeting. Our theme for this first Congregational Meeting will be "Share the Harvest Bounty." There are two goals that underlie this theme:

1. We want everyone to bring a dish that represents what you think of as food for the fall season and/or that reminds you of the fall harvest.
2. We want to share the harvest bounty, so please bring a can/bag/box/etc. of at least one ingredient of your dish to donate to Gaithersburg Help, to help restock their depleted stores. Please feel free to bring more than one ingredient if you can.

One of our goals for Parish Life this year is to try and incorporate some type of service element into each of our events. On October 2nd we will begin our fall emphasis on stewardship, and Tony will be helping to lead us to new understandings of our stewardship responsibilities. I think one of the ways we can be good stewards is to consciously identify those blessings and the grace we receive daily, and then, in gratitude for what we have already received, to consciously find ways to share that bounty with those around us.

Faith Talk: Confirmation at Home: This fall we will be studying The Lord's Prayer. There are seven petitions in the Lord's Prayer, plus an introduction and a conclusion. This month let's continue by looking at the and 3rd petitions: Your kingdom come. Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Here are some conversation starters -- The Kingdom of God is like...; I think I experience God's kingdom now when...; When I pray 'God's will be done,' I am asking...; The best way to discover God's will is...; God's will is not done when...; What is the difference between earth and heaven; How could doing what you love intersect with God's will for the world?

CTS Yard Sale: Total to date from the yard sale - $2,215.54 – with $221.55 going into our tithe fund (to go to ELCA World Hunger) and $1,993.99 going into our Gathering fund. Thank you again for your support - donors, buyers, and workers!

2012 ELCA Youth Gathering - citizens with the saints: On October 9th, registration will open for the 2012 ELCA Youth Gathering to be held in New Orleans next summer, July 18-22 and CTS will be registering 11 youth and 2 adults: Carson, James, Kayleigh, Paul, Ellie, Sarah, Jericho, Joel, Bridget, Beatrice and Brenden and Barbara and Tony. As we begin our journey, please keep this group in your prayers as we learn and explore what it means to practice peacemaking, practice discipleship, and practice justice as we prepare for next summer. Check out the information on the Youth bulletin board!
